Peaceful And Final Settlement Of Panama-Costa Rica Dispute Near

United States Dispatches Another Note To Panama Making Clear The Position Of This Government. Panama Expected To Accede To Demands To Permit Costa Rica To Occupy Disputed Coto Territory

Washington, Aug. 23.—Final and peaceful settlement of the dispute between Panama and Costa Rica appeared eminent today following the dispatch of a second note to Panama by this government insisting that Coto territory be turned over to Costa Rica. This note was sent by the State Department yesterday in answer to an informal inquiry from Panama as to whether this government was demanding secession of the territory to Costa Rica.

Informal Query Answered.
The informal query was to the effect that if Costa Rica delivered an ultimatum to Panama and tried to back it with force, Panama would resist, but if the U. S. demanded giving up the disputed territory, Panama would comply. The U. S. note was dispatched after calling attention to the previously stated position of this government that it would be "compelled to proceed in a manner that would be requisite," unless Panama gave up the disputed territory.

STORY OF MUTINY ABOARD ALLIANCA TOLD BY OFFICER

Ship Makes Port With Armed Guards Pacing Deck. 4 Members Of Crew Arrested At Ship Lands.

New York, Aug. 23.—The first story of the mutiny aboard the Panama Railroad liner Allianca, which sent out S. O. S. calls and took on U. S. Marines to guard the vessel after rioting had started among the crew was told today when the steamer arrived here with armed guards pacing the deck.

Four of the crew were in irons and no one was permitted to enter the pier where the ship docked. Capt. J. Stone informed the United Press that formal charges of mutiny would not be preferred against members of the crew arrested here on charge of inciting riot.

JANESVILLE SHINERS GET STIFF FINES

Find Out That Liquor Making Is Costly Trade When Officers Take Hand In The Game. Jailed.

Two Janesville residents learned yesterday that the business of making and selling illicit liquor is not one of the healthiest occupations a fellow can engage in up here in Clearfield county.

Lewis Balosky, who was arrested some time ago for making and selling white mule, entered a plea of guilty to a similar charge, was given $500 fine and costs and three months in jail, with the privilege of a parole from the jail sentence on payment of the fine and costs.

Federal Authorities Take Six Into Custody And Disclose Plot To Defraud Banks.

USE OF MAILS SNARES THE GANG

Brains Of Crime Trust Are Under Arrest—Bogus Bank Notes Basis Of Widespread Plot.

Chicago, Aug. 23.—A complete confession of the working of an alleged six million dollar swindle ring was made today by Rudolph E. Kohn, government official pronounced as round up of members of the gang continued.

His story, according to District Attorney Clinnon, in charge of the investigation, revealed two schemes of the "swindle trust" running into hundreds of thousands of dollars.

Head of Ring Revealed
Chicago, Ill., Aug. 23.—An arch swindling game, said to have netted its creators over three million dollars, has been bared here today.

Six were under arrest by federal authorities charged with using the mails to defraud in connection with alleged sales of bogus notes to banks.

Federal authorities linked the plot with the operations of John S. Worthington, now under arrest for dealing in stolen securities. Chas. W. Frenhe, partner of Worthington, is charged with being the brains of the gang.

DOC. STORK PAYS CALL-ALL HAPPY

Steak in the Halden-Kelly Coal Co. is soaring to high figures these days regardless of the state of the coal trade and the members of the firm are not at all unhappy over the trend of business. The reason for the prevailing happiness and optimism is none other than the arrival of two new members in the firm. A little Miss Kelly arrived on Thursday on the Stork express and a young robust Mr. Halden followed on Saturday. Both arrivals are doing fine and Halden-Kelly Company says business can go hang.

There was no interference with the gathering on the part of military authorities.

SNOW SHOE WATER TESTS SHOW THAT SUPPLY IS O. K.

Water Company Calls On State Expert To Analyze Samples Taken At Various Places.

In view of the recent epidemic of typhoid at Snow Shoe, officials of the Snow Shoe Water Co. took an active part in running down the source of the disease. President O. J. Harn, of the water company, who was a Clearfield visitor yesterday, stated that six different tests of the water supply, taken in various parts of Snow Shoe, had been turned over to Dr. Seibert, of the State Department of Health.

These samples, tested out in a Philadelphia laboratory, proved to be unpolluted. In order to keep a close tab on the water supply, President Harn stated it was being tested at regular intervals.

DUBOIS TRIMMED BY AMERICAN LEGION OF CURWENSVILLE

The Curwensville American Legion baseball team, feeling in need of a little practice, slipped over to Dubois yesterday afternoon and neatly trimmed the Dubois Pirates in an interesting game, the final score of which was 7 to 3. Johnny Leatherdy did the twirling for Curwensville and he held the Pirates in check during the entire game.

Curwensville put the game on ice in the very first inning when they pounded in four runs. Getz and Crossin, of the locals, played with Curwensville, while several Brookville players assisted Dubois.

Five rum laden schooners ped by and dashed up Chesapeake Bay.

Patrol Boats Search Inlet
The Baltimore harbor patrol boats took up the hunt, while smaller craft carrying state and federal prohibition agents searched the smaller streams.

The quintette of rum laden motor schooners sailed from Nassau Bahamas, between August 1 and August 13, bound for Norfolk. They carried more than 2000 cases of Scotch whiskey taken from a former submarine chaser.

Pinched For Boozing, Moldy Wanted To Get Out. Threatened To Sue Burgess If His Batch Of Hooch Spoiled While He Was In Jail.

"Moldy" Winger became tangled up with an overland of Clearfield county moonshine Saturday night last and in consequence thereof was gathered into the police drag net and assisted in crowding the lock-up to capacity.

When Burgess Chase was holding police court in the lock up at 3 o'clock Sunday morning Moldy made a tearful, loud and long-sustained plea for his liberty at that time, giving as his reason, the necessity to return to his home in Mt. Zion to look after a little manufacturing he was doing. When pressed for details "Moldy" said he had a moonshine still working and had a batch of mash cooking when he came to town Saturday and there was a possibility that his detention would result in the mash spoiling, and if it did spoil he proposed to bring suit for damages against Burgess Chase and his police force.

Moldy's appeal fell upon deaf ears for the time being, but yesterday morning Sheriff Gorman and Chief of police Hitt accompanied Moldy to his home and demanded that he lead them to the still.

"Moldy" made good alright. He led them to a still but not the still. He dug up out of the brush below his house a home made still of a very crude pattern, made from a couple of 50-pound lard cans with the top of a large milk can ingeniously soldered into the affair.

The officers, are of the opinion that the still produced is a cast off, or the original, which was used to manufacture enough of the ardent to produce a profit and a part of said profit went into more improved machinery, and a "still hunt" is on in the woods in that neighborhood.

OBITUARY

ALFRED GRAHAM

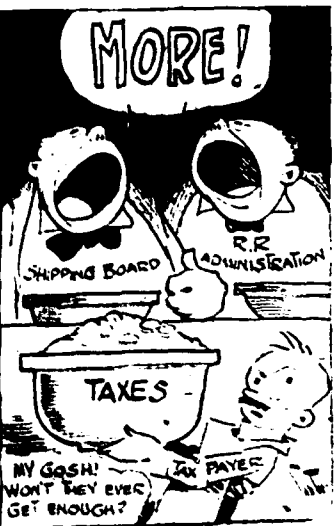

Alfred Graham, whose death occurred at the family home, corner of West Market street and Gulch avenue at 3 o'clock Monday morning, was born in Bradford township, October 15, 1850, and was therefore in his 71st year at the time of his death.

Mr. Graham followed farming and lumbering, and developed into one of Clearfield county's most successful lumbermen. He was an honest, industrious, upright man and possessed a wide acquaintance throughout the county. A staunch Democrat, he took a great interest in politics. He always interested himself in every movement for the betterment and up-building of his town and community and was one of the representatives of his Ward on the Town Council at his death.

He was married June 29, 1881, to Emma E. Hoover of Cooper township. To this union were born four children, E. Grace, deceased, Maude E., Florence, and John C. Graham.

The deceased was affiliated with Clearfield Lodge L. O. O. F., and also a member of Trinity Methodist Episcopal church, having been a member of the Board of Trustees of that church for many years.

The funeral will take place from the Graham home Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock, with interment in Hillcrest cemetery.

ODDS AND ENDS AND THINGS

"By Skinny"

Some people are always stirring things up. Suits have been filed or are in process of being filed against 287 persons receiving money from Charles Ponzi in his schemes. The suits are being brought by the Ponzi trustees to settle the claims of those who lost through intrusting of their money to the "Boston Wizard." The total amount which will be sued for is about $1,250,000, said James A. Lowell, one of the trustees.

At the start of the Ponzi scheme in 1919 he was only able to persuade eighteen persons into trusting him with $1,770. As time went on the amounts of money sent him rose until in May, June and July he handled $9,405,135 in cash. In the last three months of his career Ponzi had a staff of over 180 agents and had accounts in forty different banks. The majority of those who gave him money were poor, although some amounts as high as $40,000 were received. At the time of the crash, when he surrendered to the Federal authorities, about $5,000,000 belonging to poor people was tied up.

The suits to recover the money from the persons who received it as "dividends" are to be brought, under recent decisions of the United States Courts, which the trustees claim, uphold their contentions that the money is returnable.

Some of the women of the Kentucky mountain country have taken up the cudgel against moonshining, because the future of the community schools they have built up is menaced by the unholy traffic in illicit liquor. One righteously indignant woman will accomplish more in a week along that line than ten paid government agents in six months, and we have reason for hope for a clean up in the Cumberland.

It must be getting pretty strong up in New England. Rev. Herbert Whitlock, pastor of the People's Baptist Tabernacle at Manchester,

New Hampshire, in a recent sermon advocated smoked glasses for the men.

He said that they should be restrained from staring at the women who resort to paint, powder and bare knees to attract attention.

"It is now time," he said "to save men who stand on the street corners and stare at short skirts and rolled down stockings. These men should be equipped with heavy smoked glasses."

Just think of it. The steamship Cameronian arrived in port from Glasgow on Sunday loaded down with 18,000 cases of good old Scotch whisky. But, wait a minute. The Scotch was sealed, locked and under guard from whisky stealers, because it was destined for release in Canada.

Bradley Hull, Cleveland, Ohio, head of the bureau of domestic relations, who has had lots of experience tells the women of his city that if they wish to keep their husbands even tempered during warm weather they must give them all the cold drinks they can stand and also orders a cold bath before supper. He says "Fill 'em up on cold drinks—lots of ice cold lemonade and tea—and they won't be a bit hard to handle." If possible, Mr. Hull urges that every married couple take their vacations separately.

A Chicago woman comes to the front with the rather unique slogan of "Jobs for Grandmas."

She does not believe Grandma's place is necessarily by the fireside with the family cat. It is her opinion that elderly women would be more contented doing constructive work amid the adding machines and tickers of the modern marts of trade.

JACOB SHEARER

Jacob Shearer, a well known resident of Wallacetown, died about 1:30 p. m., August 12th, as the result of a serious injury received that morning. Mr. Shearer was a highly industrious man, a member of the Methodist Episcopal church, whose sudden death robs the community of a good citizen. Surviving are his wife and six children: Russell, Eliza, Margaret, Wilbur, Charles S. and Mildred. Also one brother, C. C. Shearer of Kylerstown, and three sisters: Catherine, wife of W. H. Hindle, of Philipsburg; Mary, wife of Curt Stratton, of Philipsburg; and Minnie, wife of William Stewart, of Windber. Mrs. Shearer is a daughter of A. C. Lansberry of Rigtler.

Mrs. SELCHERT'S DAUGHTER

Was Restored to Health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Horicon, Wis. "My young daughter had been troubled for several months with backache and a bad feeling in her stomach. When she got to the table to eat she did not want anything, while before she was so hungry she could hardly wait for her dinner. The doctors gave her medicine but it did not help her. One day I was reading a little book for you which was left on my table and it reminded me that when I was a young girl I took several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. So she went to the drug store and got a bottle and after the second one she could eat and has not had backache since. In all she took six bottles of it. She goes to school and on Saturdays helps with the housework. She is a normal, healthy girl now and we recommend your medicine. You have my permission to publish this letter as a testimonial for the Vegetable Compound." Mrs. FRANK SELCHERT, 150 Larabee St., Horicon, Wis.

Mothers all over the country have found Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to be a most reliable remedy for such conditions.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Mrs. Harry Wilbur, of Youngstown, Ohio, arrived in town Monday and is stopping at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rorbaugh, West State street, where she expects to remain for several weeks.

The new coal truck purchased by Mr. Isaac Black, arrived yesterday and was initiated into service immediately in delivering coal to many waiting patrons. Mr. Black has ordered ahead for the delivery of several thousand bushels of fine house and furnace coal, being taken from the Thompson bank below town.

A troop of Boy Scouts left Monday morning for a woods camp in which they expect to spend a full week, putting themselves in fine physical condition before the opening of the winter term of school. During their stay in camp they will be instructed in woodcraft and all other principles that go toward advancing the Scout work.

Newt. Shirey attended the Mahaffey camp meeting last Sunday and informed the Progress letter man that a missionary fund exceeding $89,400 was raised and pledged in the district, of which this county is a part. He said that he received the surprise of all his church experience when he heard the amount read off, never having a thought that the sum would be any where near as large as that.

Mr. W. A. Thompson and wife motored over to Punxsutawney last Sunday and spent the time with Mr. Miller and family. Returning Mr. Miller and wife accompanied the Thompsons to Curwensville, going on to Clearfield in the evening where Mrs. Miller has a sister who has been operated on in the hospital.

Mrs. Mame Sample, of Sunnyside, near Pittsburgh, came to Curwensville last Saturday and is visiting in the home of Mrs. Venie Miller on North Thompson street. She is a daughter of the late James R. Norris and has numerous brothers and sisters as well as relatives in this vicinity whom she will visit ere she returns to her city home.

Samuel Bowers, wife and child, motored up from their home in Pittsburgh last Saturday and are stopping with his mother, Mrs. John Bowers over on South side. He is a brother of William and Charlie Bowers both of this place.

Mr. and Mrs. M. K. Carpenter and son James, who reside in Clarksburg, W. Va., are guests of Mr. Carpenter's parents at the Park House. He visits here at least once a year and the oftener he comes the more delighted he is with the town and people.

A caucus composed of the Republican voters of this borough was held in the Public Building last evening. The meeting was not as well attended as it should have been, but notwithstanding this fact alone, keen interest was manifest in the selection of proper candidates for the various offices that are to be filled. No ripple of discontent was visible on the surface against any of those who filed papers in order to become a legal candidate and have their names appear on the ballot on primary election day.

Miss Annie McGuowan of Clearfield was given the new Ford automobile Saturday evening by the local lodge of Red Men of this place.

The American Legion ball team reinforced by a couple of players from out of town, went over to DuBois yesterday afternoon to tackle the Pirates and won 7 to 3.

In conversation with a traveling man yesterday, who claims to be a close observer of business and also of the financial condition of trade in general throughout the state, we asked him how conditions in this town compared with other towns of the same size. He replied that Curwensville really did not know or realize what hard times meant. He said, "I have been coming to Curwensville off and on now for ten years past, and I never saw the day yet that I did not sell a bill of goods to some one of your merchants. Work may be a trifle slack just at present here, but you have no bread line nor people on the verge of starvation, such as I find in a great many other places that I visit. While your people are not spending any large sums for the purchase of food stuff, everyone seems to have a little change left and pays for what he gets. I see no shabbily dressed men, women or children on the streets, and all seem to be in pretty good humor with one another. I am of the opinion that Curwensville is one of the solid towns that is going to live thro the present business depression and come out of it much better to meet business and labor than during any panic that the town has ever passed through. Your merchants are not discouraged but are looking on the bright side of things and buying fall and winter goods. Curwensville is all right and you can take my word for it."

The sign of a Better Gasoline

If you have held to the belief that there can be no discernible difference between one gasoline and another, you make a careful note of the results you get with today's Atlantic.

For this gasoline is different. Greater in calorific power. Finer in balance—volatility and stability combined to a degree that means quicker and surer ignition, sharper and more complete combustion—every possible ounce of the fuel's potential energy converted into live wheel-turning power.

You'll not only feel the difference—in quicker getaway, faster pickup, and a more vigorous punch behind every piston stroke. But in the sustained test—after days and weeks of steady use—the proof of Atlantic quality becomes unmistakable:

Ignition "knocks" disappear. Carbon accumulations diminish. There's less popping and sputtering when "warming up." "Misses" are fewer. Mileage is greater, as the recorder plainly shows.

"There's an Atlantic Pump on the road you are traveling"
—the sign of a better gasoline.

There's no waiting for the tub to fill; actually two minutes are enough for a cleansing and refreshing shower that puts you on your toes.

Let us tell you how little it will cost to install a Speakman shower in your bath room.

There seems to be quite a good deal of secrecy surrounding the German-American peace proceedings, at least on the American side of the Atlantic, which is giving members of the Senate little concern. While the matter of throwing open the conference of diplomats here next November when the disarmament conference starts, is being discussed pro and con in a thousand newspapers in a thousand cities, it might be well to shift the line of fire to the peace treaty negotiations.

In this respect the United States Senate is in relatively the same position that the English Parliament found itself, and apparently is still finding itself, over the Irish question. The members seem to know all about it—but—and there is the catch, they claim they know nothing. Inasmuch as the public opinion cry over the disarmament proceedings raised quite a disturbance it is hard to see why the advocates of publicity have neglected the peace treaty opportunity.

From meager dispatches received from across the water, it is easily deduced that more is known of the terms of the treaty in Germany than has been disclosed here. Of course, it is feasible to believe that many senators, close to the administration, have been initiated into the mysteries of the document that is causing much weeping, and wailing and gnashing of teeth in Germany, but the German-American peace treaty is not a matter to be decided by only a few. There are too many interests that must be safeguarded.

Then too comes the assertion that the secrecy of the proceedings was to hasten a final conclusion of the treaty in order to assure that the United States be embroiled in no internal wrangle over the terms of the document while the Disarmament Conference is going on. It is claimed if the matter were left to negotiations between commissioners of the two countries it would probably reach the Senate just about the time the Disarmament parley starts, and it would be awkward, to say the least, to have Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, who will lead the Administration fight at the parley, engaged in trying to stifle a peace treaty stench at such a time.

Its peculiar power that advertising has. Just for instance, a constable near Philadelphia has put up an awful kick because members of a Philadelphia Automobile club proposed to give widespread publicity to his cleverly arranged speedtrap which netted a return of $14.50 per head, 35 times a week to be split three ways, a whole lot to him, a little bit to his "Judge" and a minority parcel to the State.

"How can you catch 'em if they know all about it?" howled Constable Sapp, who apparently lived up to his name. Plaintively did he yell when his "Judge" gave him orders to lay off the trap Sunday. "It's my biggest day," he complained as he laid away his pencil and notebook.

All of which will cause autoists who have been hooked between Clearfield and DuBois, and Clearfield and Tyrone, to wish that the learned "Judge" would come over in this section and lay down the law to some of the "constables" on these routes. On the other hand, it behooves some drivers to exercise more care in crowded districts. These speed traps, however, are nearly always located on a nice long uninterrupted stretch of road where an autoist accustomed to sit behind the wheel, sees a chance to make up a little time without danger to himself, his car, or to the other fellow.

Over in New York the other day a police court judge soaked an actress $15 and fifteen days for a fit of temperment. It's a good thing some of the people in Clearfield don't happen to be in New York when their temperamental fits strike them.

Another reason for locating your moonshine factory out in the fastness of the hills appears in an item in an eastern newspaper which described how detectives, climbing a fire escape, looked through an unblinded window and saw some amateur moonshiners manufacturing their hooch. Which only leads us to say it is a good thing there aren't many fire escapes around here.

Most significant is the announcement that New York landlords are getting ready to boost rents 20 to 80 per cent. IF THEY CAN GET AWAY WITH IT. That is the big hitch. The "if", in this instance, covers a lot of territory. The only trouble in a town the size of Clearfield, which is woefully short of housing facilities, is that they DO GET AWAY WITH IT.

Philipsburg can't find any one who is willing to run for Burgess of the town. The way Oscola and Clearfield have been trimming that much touted ball team over in the capital of Rush township it isn't much wonder that all of the Burgess material has taken to the storm cellars.—Bellefonte Watchman.

MONEY CAUSED MURDER

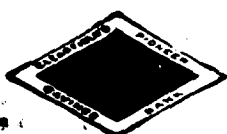

An old lady who was very well-to-do boasted that she had no faith in banks and that she never trusted them with any of her affairs.

It was generally known that she kept money hidden away in her home. It was also said that she sewed paper money under the lining of her dresses.

Because of these stories people expected a robbery so it was not a great surprise when this queer old lady was found dead one Sunday morning—brutally murdered for her hidden money.

The thieves evidently found money in various places. They turned things topsy turvy in the effort to find every dollar about the house. The old lady lost everything when she lost her life—a calamity which she invited by her foolish methods.

Think it over.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY

A most delightful party was held Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. D. R. Duke of Bolliver Banks near Woodland, when about thirty-five friends and relatives dropped in in honor of her birthday.
The evening was spent in playing games and dancing after which refreshments were served by the hostess' daughter, Miss Mary Shovelstul, and Miss Sara Taylor. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Knepp, Misses Rose and Roxanna Knepp, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knepp and son, of Curwensville; Miss Jesse Ross and Rosse Ross, Misses Pearle and Mildred Molin, Niagara Falls, and John Colie.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF OUR DEAR SON

Walter J. Clark died at the Clearfield hospital Sept. 8, 1919, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Clark. Gone but not forgotten.
Two years have passed, with our hearts still sore; as time goes on we miss him more. His loving smile, his welcome face—no one can fill his vacant place. The loss was bitter, the sting severe, to part with him we loved so dear. And yet he knows when He did call who watches even the sparrow fall, who has taken him from this world of sin. Perhaps to live, and reign with Him. No one knows, yea, not one can tell, but we hope and trust with his soul 'tis well. Philadelphia and State College papers please copy.

Picked Up Along Third Base Line

"Fighting Jack" Onslow and his Steelers will be the attraction at the driving park tomorrow afternoon. These games with the Steelers are real battles every inch of the way, so don't miss this one.

Our team goes to Osceola on Thursday and the Blossburg Champions meet the locals here Friday afternoon.

The Philipsburg Journal, speaking of baseball, says:

"Nine out of ten of the local fans believe the Philipsburg baseball club with its present lineup, much strengthened, can beat the Clearfield team. They want to see the two teams in action again. They fully supported the local team throughout the season. Some of the biggest crowds in the history of local baseball have gathered at Scott Field this season. If there is any good reason why the Philipsburg team should refuse to play with the Clearfield team, the public, whose patronage and interest make baseball possible, have a right to know it. The public here will stand by the local team. If Clearfield defeats the home team in fair contest that is all right. It is nothing to be defeated if the team has done its best to avoid defeat. But nobody has much sympathy for quitters. And in view of the fact that there has been no published explanation of the matter or trouble or whatever it is that led the local management to cancel the games with Clearfield, the local baseball public feels that it has been placed in a position where it cannot reply to the taunts of the Clearfielders.

The Second Ward Wild Cats clawed up the West Side Bear Cats to the tune of 12 to 10 in a ten-inning baseball game at the High School athletic field at the Driving Park on Friday afternoon last. In a return game on Monday afternoon the Bear Cats came back strong by defeating their rivals 10 to 4. The feature of Friday's game was Halford's pitching, while Barnie's home run featured yesterday's battle. The next game between the two teams will be on Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Batteries—Wild Cats, Halford and Ardary; Bear Cats, Bell and Sughrue.

Keeping Up With Your Friends

You have undoubtedly thought of some of your friends who take week-end trips to some pleasure spot, some new and interesting place—who are enjoying many picnics and similar outings—all made possible by an INDIAN MOTOCYCLE.

We know thousands who are getting the most pleasure out of their money spent—having invested in an INDIAN. They are independent of trains and trolleys—going where and when inclination dictates.

Money invested in the purchase of an INDIAN MOTOCYCLE nets in dividend returns of health and pleasure. The maintenance cost of a motorcycle is almost negligible. One could easily spend the price of an INDIAN in ordinary pleasures and have nothing to show for it—but after a season of joyful touring, health building trips and convenient traveling to and from work—you still have the motorcycle—symbolic of a wise investment.

He Lost 65 Pounds—She Got Thinner; Both Look Much Better!

It is decidedly beneficial to reduce weight when one is over-weight. The decrease is usually followed by great betterment in vitality, health and often produces a permanent improvement in appearance, especially when Korein Tablets are taken according to the simple directions.

Gen. C. Reynolds, President of the Royal Fellowship, said he reduced 64 pounds in 12 months. Mrs. M. Lemer stated she reduced 66 pounds and she looks and feels much younger. Alice B. Canale also used Korein and lost what she wished—20 pounds—in less than three weeks.

And so the story goes from one to another about Korein and the easy directions—a seemingly endless chain of reported reductions in weight with wonderful improvement in health, figure and alertness of body and mind. It's the absolutely safe, easy, scientific method of self-treatment. The pictures give ideas.

LEATHER BELTING

There is no question that high grade leather is the best belting for some drives. During the war and for some time afterward the cost of leather products was so excessive that we didn't attempt to sell leather belting where anything else could be used.

Leather is now one of the materials on which there has been real price reduction. As a result leather belting is back almost to pre-war figures and again deserves consideration from a price as well as a quality standpoint.

We have thousands of stocks and can give you the very highest grade at surprisingly low cost. We also have leather belt dressing.

MR. AND MRS. ISAAC WOLFE CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe, of New Millport, Pa., were recipients of hundreds of congratulatory messages at their home last Saturday, August 20th, on the anniversary of their Fiftieth wedding anniversary. By ten o'clock in the morning every available space for parking automobiles was crowded by cars of their friends and acquaintances from far and near. The crowd became so great that preparations were made for entertainment in the grove above the house where tables were erected to accommodate two hundred people. Everybody who came brought a well laden basket, sufficient to serve the tables all afternoon in feeding the assembled host.

During the serving of the last table Grant Norris, of the Curwensville schools and a personal friend of the family, took charge of the program of the day. After he told of Mr. Wolfe's experience in the civil war, his being wounded in action at City Cross Roads, Va., and his honorable discharge from the army of the Potomac, and the daring of Mrs. Wolfe in taking on this "wild Wolfe of the plains" to tame and domesticate, he introduced Mr. Wolfe who responded in reciting patriotic poems and telling some of the trying experiences of the past fifty years. Mrs. Wolfe in a few well chosen words then thanked the great assembly for their kindness in coming and their hearty good wishes, and requested the choir to sing the rest of her speech, which was "Old Black Joe." At the conclusion of many congratulatory speeches the crowd arranged in line and passed before the bride and groom and extended to them the many happy greetings and good wishes.

Many Old Soldiers Present
It was gratifying to Mr. Wolfe that a few of the old soldiers of the Civil War were present. Mr. David Litz, Company K, Pennsylvania Volunteers; Mr. William Shoenig; Mr. Jake Dutrie, 16th Pennsylvania Cavalry, and Mr. Daniel Barnett, all veterans of the war for self preservation, added much to the pleasure of the day. Miss Vera Wily, Miss Alice Bell, Miss Jessie Bell, Mrs. Ed Ferguson, Mr. Ralph Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Blake W. Norris, Mrs. Wade Norris, Miss Erma Norris, Miss Delta Norris, William Thurston, Mr. Harry Cathcart, Mr. Orel Bell, Miss Peterman, Carl Wiley, Mr. James Matlack, Mr. Clark Thurston, Mr. Alfred McCracken, Mr. Milton Bloom formed a choir which made the woods ring with musical selections. It was one of the greatest days that Ferguson Township and New Millport has experienced for a long time and it was all because Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe have been, as the speaker said, "Honest, honorable and respected citizens and good neighbors." May they continue to enjoy the full fruitage of their honest efforts in the golden glories of the afternoon and evening of their lives.

Four of their five children were present, Maggie, Blanch, Frank and John. Blake, who has been absent in the West was not able to be present. In fact they have not heard from Blake for a number of years and the family fears that they may never hear from him again. Mrs. Mary J. Norris, who has not been away from her home for a long time, was brought on the grounds to add dignity and age to the occasion. Late in the afternoon the crowd went to the "Big Picnic" at New Millport to spend the evening.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brown celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Girard township on Thursday, Aug. 18th. A large company of relatives and friends were present to assist in the celebration.

RUM LADEN SCHOONERS RUN DRY BLOCKADE TO SAFETY

Five rum laden schooners carrying a quarter of a million dollars worth of whisky are being sought by Federal dry agents following a successful dash made through the Virginia capes early this morning. Although a heavy guard had been posted and the Coast Guard Cutter Manning, heavily armed, lay in the stream, the ships slipped by and dashed up Chesapeake Bay.

Patrol Boats Search Inlet
The Baltimore harbor patrol boats took up the hunt, while smaller craft carrying state and federal prohibition agents searched the smaller streams.

The quintette of rum laden motor schooners sailed from Nassau Bahamas, between August 1 and August 13, bound for Norfolk. They carried more than 2000 cases of Scotch whiskey taken from a former submarine chaser.

Pinched For Boozing, Moldy Wanted To Get Out. Threatened To Sue Burgess If His Batch Of Hooch Spoiled While He Was In Jail.

"Moldy" Wenger seems tangled up with an episode of Clearfield county moonshine Saturday night last and in consequence thereof was rather into the public drug net and assisted in crowding the lockup to capacity.

When Burgess Chase was holding police court in the lock up at 3 o'clock Sunday morning Moldy made a tearful, loud and long-sustained plea for his liberty at that time, giving as his reason, the necessity to return to his home in Mt. Zion to look after a little manufacturing he was doing. When pressed for details "Moldy" said he had a moonshine still working and had a batch of mash cooking when he came to town Saturday and there was a possibility that his detention would result in the mash spoiling, and if it did spoil he proposed to bring suit for damages against Burgess Chase and his police force.

Moldy's appeal fell upon deaf ears for the time being, but yesterday morning Sheriff Gorman and Chief of police Hitt accompanied Moldy to his home and demanded that he lead them to the still.

Moldy made good alright. He led them to a still but not the still. He dug up out of the brush below his house a home made still of a very crude pattern, made from a couple of 50 pound lead cans, with the top of a large milk can ingeniously soldered into the affair.

The officers are of the opinion that the still produced is a cast-off, or the original, which was used to manufacture enough of the ardent to produce a profit and a part of said profit went into more improved machinery, and a "still hunt" is on in the woods in that neighborhood.

Mrs. Harry Wibbur, of Youngstown, Ohio, arrived in town Monday and is stopping at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Rorabaugh, West State street, where she expects to remain for several weeks.

The new coal truck purchased by Mr. Isaac Black, arrived yesterday and was initiated into service immediately in delivering coal to many waiting patrons. Mr. Black has orders ahead for the delivery of several thousand bushels of fine house and furnace coal, being taken from the Thompson bank below town.

A troop of Boy Scouts left Monday morning for a woods camp in which they expect to spend a full week, putting themselves in fine physical condition before the opening of the winter term of school. During their stay in camp they will be instructed in woodcraft and all other principles that go toward advancing the Scout work.

Newt. Shirey attended the Ma-haffey camp meeting last Sunday and informed the Progress letter man that a missionary fund exceeding $89,400 was raised and pledges in the district, of which this county is a part. He said that he received the surprise of all his church experience when he heard the amount read off, never having a thought that the sum would be any where near as large as that.

Mr. W. A. Thompson and wife motored over to Punxsutawney last Sunday and spent the time with Mr. Miller and family. Returning Mr. Miller and wife accompanied the Thompsons to Curwensville, going on to Clearfield in the evening where Mrs. Miller has a sister who has been operated on in the hospital.

A caucus composed of the Republican voters of this borough was held in the Public Building last evening. The meeting was not as well attended as it should have been, but notwithstanding this fact alone, keen interest was manifest in the selection of proper candidates for the various offices that are to be filled. No ripple of discontent was visible on the surface against any of those who filed papers in order to become a legal candidate and have their names appear on the ballot on primary election day.

Miss Annie McGuowan of Clearfield was given the new Ford automobile Saturday evening by the local lodge of Red Men of this place.

The American Legion ball team reinforced by a couple of players from out of town, went over to DuBois yesterday afternoon to tackle the Pirates and won 7 to 3.

In conversation with a traveling man yesterday, who claims to be a close observer of business, and also of the financial condition of trade in general throughout the state, we asked him how conditions in this town compared with other towns of the same size. He replied that Curwensville really did not know or realize what hard times meant. He said, "I have been coming to Curwensville off and on now for ten years past, and I never saw the day yet that I did not sell a bill of goods to some one of your merchants. Work may be a trifle slack just at present here, but you have no bread line nor people on the verge of starvation, such as I find in a great many other places that I visit. While your people are not spending any large sums for the purchase of food stuff, everyone seems to have a little change left and pays for what he gets. I see no shabbily dressed men, women or children on the streets, and all seem to be in pretty good humor with one another. I am of the opinion that Curwensville is one of the solid towns that is going to live thro the present business depression and come out of it much better to meet business and labor than during any panic that the town has ever passed through. Your merchants are not discouraged but are looking on the bright side of things and buying fall and winter goods. Curwensville is all right and you can take my word for it."

WITHOUT WETTING YOUR HAIR, TAKE A COOLING, REFRESHING SHOWER

Shower bathing, always so convenient, so delightfully invigorating and cleansing, has been made still more enjoyable by placing the shower head at an angle; it's now entirely unnecessary to wet the hair. Women appreciate this improvement immensely.

There's no waiting for the tub to fill; actually two minutes are enough for a cleansing and refreshing shower that puts you on your toes.

Let us tell you how little it will cost to install a Speakman shower in your bath room.

The sign of a Better Gasoline

If you have held to the belief that there can be no discernible difference between one gasoline and another, you make a careful note of the results you get with today's Atlantic.

For this gasoline is different. Greater in calorific power. Finer in balance—volatility and stability combined to a degree that means quicker and surer ignition, sharper and more complete combustion—every possible ounce of the fuel's potential energy converted into live wheel-turning power.

You'll not only feel the difference—in quicker getaway, faster pickup, and a more vigorous punch behind every piston stroke. But in the sustained test—after days and weeks of steady use—the proof of Atlantic quality becomes unmistakable:

Ignition "knocks" disappear. Carbon accumulations diminish. There's less popping and sputtering when "warming up." "Misses" are fewer. Mileage is greater, as the recorder plainly shows.

"There's an Atlantic Pump on the road you are traveling"
—the sign of a better gasoline.

There seems to be quite a good deal of secrecy surrounding the German-American peace proceedings, at least on the American side of the Atlantic, which is giving members of the Senate little concern. While the matter of throwing open the conference of diplomats here next November when the disarmament conference starts, is being discussed pro and con in a thousand newspapers in a thousand cities, it might be well to shift the line of fire to the peace treaty negotiations.

In this respect the United States Senate is in relatively the same position that the English Parliament found itself, and apparently is still finding itself, over the Irish question. The members seem to know all about it—but—and there is the catch, they claim they know nothing. Inasmuch as the public opinion cry over the disarmament proceedings raised quite a disturbance it is hard to see why the advocates of publicity have neglected the peace treaty opportunity.

From meager dispatches received from across the water, it is easily deduced that more is known of the terms of the treaty in Germany than has been disclosed here. Of course, it is feasible to believe that many senators, close to the administration, have been initiated into the mysteries of the document that is causing much weeping, and wailing and gnashing of teeth in Germany, but the German-American peace treaty is not a matter to be decided by only a few. There are too many interests that must be safeguarded.

Then too comes the assertion that the secrecy of the proceedings was to hasten a final conclusion of the treaty in order to assure that the United States be embroiled in no internal wrangle over the terms of the document while the Disarmament Conference is going on. It is claimed if the matter were left to negotiations between commissioners of the two countries it would probably reach the Senate just about the time the Disarmament parley starts, and it would be awkward, to say the least, to have Senator Lodge, chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, who will lead the Administration fight at the parley, engaged in trying to stifle a peace treaty stench at such a time.

Its peculiar power that advertising has. Just for instance, a constable near Philadelphia has put up an awful kick because members of a Philadelphia Automobile club proposed to give widespread publicity to his cleverly arranged speedtrap which netted a return of $14.50 per head, 35 times a week to be split three ways, a whole lot to him, a little bit to his "Judge" and a minority parcel to the State.

"How can you catch 'em if they know all about it?" howled Constable Sapp, who apparently lived up to his name. Plaintively did he yell when his "Judge" gave him orders to lay off the trap Sunday. "It's my biggest day," he complained as he laid away his pencil and notebook.

All of which will cause autoists who have been hooked between Clearfield and DuBois, and Clearfield and Tyrone, to wish that the learned "Judge" would come over in this section and lay down the law to some of the "constables" on these routes. On the other hand, it behooves some drivers to exercise more care in crowded districts. These speed traps, however, are nearly always located on a nice long uninterrupted stretch of road where an autoist accustomed to sit behind the wheel, sees a chance to make up a little time without danger to himself, his car, or to the other fellow.

Over in New York the other day a police court judge soaked an actress $15 and fifteen days for a fit of temperamental. It's a good thing some of the people in Clearfield don't happen to be in New York when their temperamental fits strike them.

Another reason for locating your moonshine factory out in the fastness of the hills appears in an item in an eastern newspaper which described how detectives, climbing a fire escape, looked through an unblinded window and saw some amateur moonshiners manufacturing their hooch. Which only leads us to say it is a good thing there aren't many fire escapes around here.

Most significant is the announcement that New York landlords are getting ready to boost rents 20 to 30 per cent. IF THEY CAN GET AWAY WITH IT. That is the big hitch. The "if", in this instance, covers a lot of territory. The only trouble in a town the size of Clearfield, which is woefully short of housing facilities, is that they DO GET AWAY WITH IT.

Philipsburg can't find any one who is willing to run for Burgess of the town. The way Oscola and Clearfield have been trimming that much touted ball team over in the capital of Rush township it isn't much wonder that all of the Burgess material has taken to the storm cellars.—Bellefonte Watchman.

MONEY CAUSED MURDER

An old lady who was very well-to-do boasted that she had no faith in banks and that she never trusted them with any of her affairs.

It was generally known that she kept money hidden about her home. It was also said that she sewed paper money under the lining of her dresses.

Because of these stories people expected a robbery so it was not a great surprise when this queer old lady was found dead one Sunday morning—brutally murdered for her hidden money.

The thieves evidently found money in various places. They turned things topsy turvy in the effort to find every dollar about the house. The old lady lost everything when she lost her life—a calamity which she invited by her foolish methods.

Think it over.

DELIGHTFUL PARTY

A most delightful party was held Saturday evening in honor of Mrs. D. R. Duke of Bolliver Banks near Woodland, when about thirty-five friends and relatives dropped in in honor of her birthday.

The evening was spent in playing games and dancing after which refreshments were served by the hostess' daughter, Miss Mary Shovevstui, and Miss Sara Taylor. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Knepp, Misses Rose and Roxanna Knepp, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Knepp and son, of Curwensville; Miss Jesse Ross and Rosse Ross, Misses Pearl and Mildred Molin, Niagara Falls, and John Colie.

IN LOVING REMEMBRANCE OF OUR DEAR SON

Walter J. Clark died at the Clearfield hospital Sept. 8, 1919, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jno. Clark. Gone but not forgotten.

Two years have passed, with our hearts still sore; as time goes on we miss him more. His loving smile, his welcome face—no one can fill his vacant place. The loss was bitter, the sting severe, to part with him we loved so dear. And yet he knows when he did call who watches even the sparrow fall, who has taken him from this world of sin. Perhaps to live and reign with Him. No one knows, yet none can tell, but we hope and trust with his soul 'tis well. Philadelphia and State College papers please copy.

Picked Up Along Third Base Line

"Fighting Jack" Onslow and his Steelers will be the attraction at the driving park tomorrow afternoon. These games with the Steelers are real battles every inch of the way, so don't miss this one.

Our team goes to Osceola on Thursday and the Blossburg Champions meet the locals here Friday afternoon.

The Phillipsburg Journal, speaking of baseball, says:—
"Nine out of ten of the local fans believe the Phillipsburg baseball club, with its present lineup, much strengthened, can beat the Clearfield team. They want to see the two teams in action again. They fully supported the local team throughout the season. Some of the biggest crowds in the history of local baseball have gathered at Scott Field this season. If there is any good reason why the Phillipsburg team should refuse to play with the Clearfield team, the public, whose patronage and interest make baseball possible, has a right to know it. The public here will stand by the local team. If Clearfield defeats the home team in fair contest that is all right. It is nothing to be defeated if the team has done its best to avoid defeat. But nobody has much sympathy for quitters. And in view of the fact that there has been no published explanation of the matter, or trouble or whatever it is, that led the local management to cancel the games with Clearfield, the local baseball public feels that it has been placed in a position where it cannot reply to the taunts of the Clearfielders.

The Second Ward Wild Cats clawed up the West Side Bear Cats to the tune of 12 to 10 in a ten-inning baseball game at the High School athletic field at the Driving Park on Friday afternoon last. In a return game on Monday afternoon the Bear Cats came back strong by defeating their rivals 10 to 4. The feature of Friday's game was Halford's pitching, while Barnie's home run featured yesterday's battle. The next game between the two teams will be on Thursday afternoon at 1:30. Batteries—Wild Cats, Halford and Ardary; Bear Cats, Bell and Sughrue.

MR. AND MRS. ISAAC WOLFE CELEBRATE THEIR GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe, of New Millport, Pa., were recipients of hundreds of congratulatory messages at their home last Saturday, August 20th, on the anniversary of their Fiftieth wedding anniversary. By ten o'clock in the morning every available space for parking automobiles was crowded by cars of their friends and acquaintances from far and near. The crowd became so great that preparations were made for entertainment in the grove above the house where tables were erected to accommodate two hundred people. Everybody who came brought a well laden basket, sufficient to serve the tables all afternoon in feeding the assembled host.

During the serving of the last table Grant Norris, of the Curwensville schools and a personal friend of the family, took charge of the program of the day. After he told of Mr. Wolfe's experience in the civil war, his being wounded in action at City Cross Roads, Va., and his honorable discharge from the army of the Potomac, and the daring of Mrs. Wolfe in taking on this "wild Wolfe of the plains" to tame and domesticate, he introduced Mr. Wolfe who responded in reciting patriotic poems and telling some of the trying experiences of the past fifty years. Mrs. Wolfe in a few well chosen words then thanked the great assembly for their kindness in coming and their hearty good wishes, and requested the choir to sing the rest of her speech, which was "Old Black Joe." At the conclusion of many congratulatory speeches the crowd arranged in line and passed before the bride and groom and extended to them the many happy greetings and good wishes.

Many Old Soldiers Present
It was gratifying to Mr. Wolfe that a few of the old soldiers of the Civil War were present. Mr. David of relatives and friends were present, Company K, Pennsylvania Volunteers; Mr. William Shoening; Mr. Jake Dutrie, 16th Pennsylvania Cavalry, and Mr. Daniel Barnett, all veterans of the war for self preservation, added much to the pleasure of the day. Miss Vera Wiley, Miss Alice Bell, Miss Jessie Bell, Mrs. Ed Ferguson, Mr. Ralph Ferguson, Mr. and Mrs. Blake W. Norris, Mrs. Wade Norris, Miss Erma Norris, Miss Delta Norris, William Thurston, Mr. Harry Cathcart, Mr. Orel Bell, Miss Peterman, Carl Wiley, Mr. James Matlack, Mr. Clark Thurston, Mr. Alfred McCracken, Mr. Milton Bloom formed a choir which made the woods ring with musical selections. It was one of the greatest days that Ferguson Township and New Millport has experienced for a long time and it was all because Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Wolfe have been, as the speaker said, "Honest, honorable and respected citizens and good neighbors." May they continue to enjoy the full fruitage of their honest efforts in the golden glories of the afternoon and evening of their lives.

Four of their five children were present, Maggie, Blanch, Frank and John. Blake, who has been absent in the West was not able to be present. In fact they have not heard from Blake for a number of years and the family fears that they may never hear from him again. Mrs. Mary J. Norris, who has not been away from her home for a long time, was brought on the grounds to add dignity and age to the occasion. Late in the afternoon the crowd went to the "Big Picnic" at New Millport to spend the evening.

CELEBRATED GOLDEN WEDDING

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Brown celebrated their golden wedding at their home in Girard township on Thursday, Aug. 18th. A large company of relatives and friends were present to assist in the celebration.

LEATHER BELTING

There is no question that high grade leather is the best belting for some drives. During the war and for some time afterward the cost of leather products was so excessive that we didn't attempt to sell leather belting where anything else could be used.

Leather is now one of the materials on which there has been real price reduction. As a result leather belting is back almost to pre-war figures and again deserves consideration from a price as well as a quality standpoint.

We have reduced our prices and can give you the very highest grade at surprisingly low cost. We also have leather belt dressing.
